

FAQ'S REGARDING RECRUITMENT OF MEDICAL & PARAMEDICAL STAFF UNDER NATIONAL HEALTH MISSION PUNJAB

In reference to advertisement of various posts under National Health Mission Punjab published in Newspapers on 18th Jan 2014.

Information on some major queries asked by the applicants on telephone is as under:-

1. Information related to written test:-

- i. Multiple Choice Questions. There will be four options out of which one will be correct answer.
- ii. There will be no Negative Marking.
- iii. There will be a fifth oval in each answer row of OMR Answer Sheet. Those candidate who do not darken fifth oval in case of unattempted question introduced for security shall be getting deduction of marks @ $\frac{1}{4}$ per question left in which all the five ovals have been left blank.
- iv. No. of questions for each paper is 100. For Staff Nurses (Female) and for ANM (Female) No. of questions will be 90.
- v. Language of Paper will be English.
- vi. Duration of examination will be 2 hrs.

2. Information related to Ayurveda Medical Officers

There is no need to deposit separate fee for the posts AMO under RBSK and NHM. Only one application form needs to be filled up for the post of Ayurveda Medical Officers under RBSK and NHM.

3. Information related to Pharmacists

Only Allopathic Pharmacists are required under RBSK & Urban Health and will be considered eligible for this post.

4. Information related to Eligibility

Candidate must fulfill Eligibility criteria for the post he/she is applying for as on 12.02.2014.

5. Place of Posting

Place of Posting for all categories of posts will be decided by the Department. The posts are based in all 22 Districts of Punjab.

6. For the posts of Staff Nurses & ANM

Only female candidates are required to apply.

Mission Director
National Health Mission, Punjab.